Jewar airport to have Metro link with Delhi

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

New Delhi: The proposed airport at Greater Noida will have direct Metro connectivity with the capital. The UP government has told the aviation ministry it will extend the current Greater Noida Metro line to the airport site at Jewar, said aviation secretary R N Choubey.

"This was conveyed to us during a recent meeting with the UP government. The Metro line currently is

According to DMRC officials, the proposed link of about 23 km is from Pari Chowk to YEIDA Sector 20. The DMRC had prepared the alignment, station location and traffic study and had submitted it to the UP government last year

5,000 hectares (12,350 acres) for the Jewar airport.

"In the first phase, we will acquire 1,000 hectares (2,470 acres) for starting the airport. We are aiming to complete the bidding for this airport by or before 2019 to have phase-I ready by 2023," Kumar, a former chief of Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA), had said.

The Jewar airport will eventually be built in anywhere from 7,500 acres to over 12,000 acres.
